AUCTIONEER'S NOTE: After nearly 50 years as an auctioneer, it is a privilege to have Glynn Marsh request that I disperse his lifetime collection. He and his late wife Sue believed in auction marketing and enjoyed the atmosphere that it provided to learn about and seek out the unique items from our past. His auction is an invitation to his friends and the general public to take part in that process. You will like all that you see and Glynn would like you to take home what you like the best. Thanks in advance for your attendance.
